THE HAPPENING

You should get your money's worth at the Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young concert tomorrow.

Jesse Colin-Young is back on the bill.

And this could be the biggest concert on the group's 33-city tour.

Belkin Productions are expecting around 85,000, many from out of town.

In fact, this could be the country's largest single performance in an enclosed, controlled outdoor facility.

Bigger than the Beatles' concerts, or even those of the Stones.

The entire tour is expected to gross $10 million.

Colin-Young dropped the show last week and Santana was added. So now there will be a four group show. CCS&Y, The Band, Santana and Colin-Young.

The Stadium doors will open at 2:30 p.m. There's a chance the show could start before the 4 p.m. starting time.

Incidentally, it will be an Indian summer after all. Neil Young will bring an antique cigar store Indian on stage for good luck. (Good luck to anyone who owns a cigar store Indian, anyway. They're worth hundreds of dollars.

CSN&Y have carted their oriental carpet to other concerts. Young has also brought his little dog, Art. A mutt, they say. Not as famous as Fella or Checkers maybe, but a real scene-stealer.

Time to check your calendars again.

Hawkwind has been switched from Wednesday (4th) to Sunday, Sept. 8.

The band will still be winging in to the Allen at 7:30 p.m., along with Elephant's Memory. Tickets are $5.50 in advance, $6.50 day of show.

You have a Sept. 4 ticket and can't make the Sunday show? Your ticket money will be refunded at your point of purchase.

Our northern neighbors are striking again. The Stampedeers, who had the biggest rock tour in the history of Canada, will share the stage with Mountain Tuesday, Sept. 17 at the Allen.

The Stampedeers' strongest hit? "Sweet City Woman."

Seven (count 'em, 7!) lucky girls will win a ticket to the Chicago concert at Blossom Music Center and a press party afterwards. They will also win a WIX-

Y-Chicago T-shirt and an album.

All you have to do is send a photo with your name, address, telephone number and age. Then write 25 words or less on "why I would like to spend an evening with Chicago." (This won't be the night Chicago died.)

Send all this info to WIXY, 3940 Euclid Ave., Cleveland 44115, for this is their contest. Deadline is Sunday midnight.

Both WIXY and WMMS will help emcee the Pine-way Trails Festival on Labor Day in Chardon. Terry Stevens and Wilde Child will be there from WIXY and Kid Leo from MMS. The concert features Rare Earth, Rush, Rainbow Canyon, Sweetleaf and East Wind.
